AN ADVENTURE ON THE PLAINS.

In the year 18—, I undertook the perilous journey of crossing the Plains on my way from the Atlantic States to California. Our company was composed of nine persons. Among the number was bill Johnson, formerly a hunter and trapper of the West.

At the close of a beautiful day in May we found

At the close of a beautiful day in May we found ourselves seated around a blazing camp fire upon the banks of the Little Blue River, some two hundred miles from St. Joseph, Missouri. Some of the company had spread a blanket upon the grass, and were busily engaged in a game of cards, while myself and Bill Johnson were eagerly dis-grass, and were busily engaged in a game of cards, while myself and Bill Johnson were eagerly discussing the propriety of having an antelope hunt on the succeeding day. We soon came to the conclusion that we would spend the next day in hunting, as our train was going to stop for several days to recruit our animals. I cannot say that I enjoyed a fine slumber that night, because I was anxious that morning should arrive, for I expected rare sport on the coming day. The much wished for morning came at last, and after dispatching a hasty breakfast, and informing our comrades that we should return by sunset, we departed with our rifles on our shoulders.

For three hours we travelled in a southerly direction from the camp without seeing any game at all, and being somewhat tired and disappointed, we concluded to seek shelter from the rays of the burning sun, and take a short rest. Following up a ravine a short distance, we came to a sink or hole some twenty feet deep; the sides of which were of solid rock, and almost perpendicular. Carefully examining this curious spot, we at length discovered an excavation in the wall just large enough to admit a man with case. This was soon accomplished, and we found ourselves in an apartment about nine feet square, with walls of solid rock. This we thought would afford us the desired shelter, and we were just comfortably seated when my companion hastily sprang to his feet, saying.

"Be silent! I hear a rustling in the grass, which feet, saying.

"Be silent! I hear a rustling in the grass, which is probably caused by an elk or antelope. You stay here," and seizing his rifle he stole cautiously down to the end of the ravine. He was soon lost to view among the shrubbery which skirted the ravine, leaving me alone to meditate on the probable cause of the noise we had just heard. But I was startled and surprised by seeing my companion come running toward the cave with anxiety and alarm plainly depicted upon his counter-

nance. "Injins!" he exclaimed, as he rushed into the

Then he commenced blocking up the entrance Then he commenced blocking up the entrance with lose stones and fragments of rock which lay scattered around. This awakened me to a sense of the danger we were in, as at that time the Pawnee Indians were known to be hostile to the whites, butchering all who fell into their hands. To my inquiries of how many there were, my companion replied;

"There are two mounted on fleet horses, want with ridge and howe a roll west hideously."

armed with rifles and bows, and most hideously painted."

Our enemies were probably aware of our place of refuge, for insead of coming up in front of the cave, they crept cautiously around to the edge of the sink, and stationed themselves out of reach of the sink, and stationed themselves out of reach of our rifles, but so as as to command the entrance to our subterranean retreat. Their persons were out of view, but by their shadows on the opposite wall we could note their manœuvres.

They evidently thought there was but one of us, but at that they did not deem it prudent to make a bold attack in front, for by so doing they would expose their persons to danzer; therefore they chose the less dangerous plan of starving us to death, compelling us to surrender or shooting us if we attempted to escape. Thus, in a manner, we were completely in the powor of these savages, unless by some stratagem we could manage to escape. But soon as night set in and spread her mautle of darkness over the land, making our situation more dismal than before, my companion took his station at the entrance, ready to give the savages a warm reception if they made an attack.

the manœuvers of the enemy. I laid down upon the hard floor of the cavern, and soon fell asleep. I intended to relieve my companion in guarding about midnight, but so soundly did I sleep that the dawn of day was just breaking in the east when

Stiff at his post stood the old hunter without a visible trace of fatigue or suffering upon his manly countenance. With the exception of the lone shriek of the coyote in the distant hills, all was silent without, and I, thinking the coast clear, was about to pass out, when my companion pulled me back, and in a low whisper, said:

"Do not move now is our most dangerous time."

"Do not move, now is our most dangerous time,
"Do not move, now is our most dangerous time,
"And immeback, and in a low whisper, said:

"Do not move, now is our most dangerous time, but I will fool 'cm yet, da.an 'em!" And immediately placing his hat upon the muzzle of his gun, he slowly moved it through the entrance. The Indians, who were on the lookout, perceiving it, mistook it for his head and fired, two balls piercing the crown of the hat. Dropping it, we supposed the Indians would show themselves. But not so. My companion seeing this scheme was about to fail, commenced making horrible groans, as one in mortal agony. This the savages took to be a sure indication that their balls had taken effect, and giving a yell of triumph, which demons might have envied, they rushed out in full view.

"Fire!" cried my companion, and the next moment the sharp report of our rifles rang through the cavern, while our enemies, giving a simultaneous bound, fell with a crashing sound upon the bottom of the sink—each one a corpse!

Placing the dead bodies in the cave, we mounted our enemies' horses, and were soon galloping into camp, to the gratification of our friends, who supposed we had fallen into the hands of the merciless Pawnees.

And now, though years have passed, and the caless Pawnees.

And now, though years have passed, and the manly form of Bill Johnson is laid in the silent grave, I respect the memory of him as a brave man and true friend in the hour of perik.

INOPPORTUNE QUOTING OF BRITISH AUTHORITIES.—British authorities in our courts are considered standard authorities for reference on doubtful points of law. The late Judge Daniels, of Virginia, used to tell us how, with great glee, when a young man, on the circuit, he saved a client's life, solely because the opposite counsel quoted from British authorities. It occurred during the last war, when the English squadron, under Admiral Cockburn, were ascending the Potomac river, burning and plundering the villages along its banks; a negro man was arraigned for the murder of one of his own color; the offence was clearly proved, and the only chance for his escape was a der of one of his own color; the offence was clearly proved, and the only chance for his escape was a slight informality in the indictment. The prosecuting attorney, in reply to Mr. Daniel's defence of his client, quoted from British authorities, showing clearly that the ground taken by the latter was untenable. While he was quoting and speaking, at intervals, bang! bang! went the cannon from the British squadron. Daniels rose to answer, and with great tact seized hold of the strong point of his opponent's cause, turning it completely over against him.

point of his opponent's cause, turning it completely over against him.

"Gentlemen," said he to the bench, "the prosecuting atterney quotes on this occasion from British authorities! British authorities, gentlemen! Can there be any one in this court room except himself so dead to feelings of patriotism as at such a moment to listen to British authorities, when British cannon are shaking the very walls of this court-house to their foundation? I pause for a reply."

court-house to their foundation? I pause for a reply."

Up jumped one of the justices, highly excited at this appeal, and thus addressed the prosecuting attorney: "Look here, Mr. —, you had better strike a bee-line from this court-house with your British authorities, or I'll commit you! Prisoner, you can go! Crier, adjourn the Court! British authorities be d—d."

The prosecuting attorney was struck all in a heap at these extra judicial proceedings, and resigned his office the very next day.

Mr. Smith, though a remarkably courteous and amiable gentleman, has fought five duels, killing his man every time. He brings into the political canvass, beside a general stock of political information and zeal for the cause, two bowie knives, one of Parson Beecher's Sharpe's rifles, two six shooters, and sundry canes and shillelahs, not to speak of two pair of brass knuckles. We bespeak for Mr. Smith a cordial reception by the press gang.

NEWS FROM THE EAST.

The steamer La Virgin arrived at this harbor on Tuesday, bringing up dates from New York to the 13th of September.

The Virgin also brought recruits to General Walker numbering 205 men.

Major Heiss, who went from this Republic some time since as bearer of despatches from the American minister to his government, returned on the Virgin. He is in good health, and reports most favorably of our prospects in the east. The Rev. Israel S. Diehl, also came rassenger on the steamer, and will remain in this State until the next steamer

We are informed by the passengers that before the Tennessee sailed from New York, on the 13th of September, the steamer Calhoun had been engaged to sail on the 9th, with five hundred men; but the Custom House officers libelled her as unsea worthy, which subjected the company to the necessity of hiring another vessel. In the delay therefore, between the sailing of the steamers, a portion of the recruits went into the country and could not be collected in time for the next boat. We shall, however, have these men by the next steamer. A large amount of amunition will also come down by the steamer Texas, expected about 4th of next month.

By the New York Herald we learn that the Central American difficulty which has caused so much diplomatic embroglio between England and the United States, has been final y adjusted to the satisfaction of Mr. Dallas, the American Minister. The terms of the settlement stipulate that Ruatan and the Bay Islands shall be returned to Honduras, and that the Belize shall be assigned to its original limits and awarded to the British govern ment. This portion of the treaty operates on Guatemala, depriving that State of all but fifty miles front on the Gulf of Mexico. We shall now see how Carrera and his brother Indians will-look upon this peculiarity of British friendship. The Mosquito question is to be settled by a complete abandonment on the part of England of any protectorate over the half breeds along the Gulf coast of Nicaragua. The Indians are to retire on to reservations similar to those assigned to savage tribes in the United States; and this government is to give them an annuity which must be fixed by arlitrators. Thus our brother Jonathan settles the affairs of his neighbors without as much as saying "by your leave." Greytown is to be surrendered

The Presidential election seems to be the allabsorbing question. Buchanan still has the lead, but the Fremont men are not disheartened. We consider Mr. Fillmore almost without a chance; usefulness.

and is would probably be most unfortunate for Nicaragua if such was not the case.

The Spanish fleet which sailed from Havana for Vera Cruz, had returned without making any demonstration. The chance of a war between Spain and Mexico seems to be considerably less.

The government of Panama has determined to levy a tax on the United States mails passing through that territory; and in the Presidential election, which has taken place before now, Calvo, a man favorable to the whites, was being opposed by a native who was hostile to all classes except those a shade darker than himself. In the event of the election of Calvo, the darkeys threatened to put their man in by brute force, in which event it was thought the city of Panama would be pillaged, and all the Americans massacred. The St. Mary, sloop-of-war, was in port, however, and her guns would tell a different tale, we think.

The news from Europe and the balance of the world, is uninteresting. In Mexico, Comonfort is banishing a number of prominent citizens suspected of being traitors. The law allowing freedom of religion was defeated.

FROM MASAYA.

Brig. Gen. Fry and Staff left this city Friday morning, to take command at Massaya, in the event the enemy should determine to advance. We despatched a special correspondent along, from whom we received this morning the following despatch:

(Special Correspondence of EL NICARAGUENSE.) Masaya, Sept. 26th, 1856.

Friday, 51 P.M.

General Fry and his Staff, and Col. Thos. F. Fisher arrived here this morning at eight o'clock. During the day they have repeatedly expressed much dissapointment at the present dulness of this place. They expected to find a greater stir than we are likely to have for some time in this very peaceful, loyal, and orderly city. The gentlemen who compose the Nicaraguan army in this place are in excellent spirits, and are prepared to give the very warmest kind of a reception to all who may do them the honor of calling upon them from Granada, or any other part of the world. Through some strange freak, for which I cannot account, the soldiers have become affected with piety, and are in constant attendance at the large church in the plaza. Their devotions have not been confined to praying alone, but, like the pilgrims of old, they have erected same good works in the vicinity of the sacred edifice, which will serve for future wonder and admiration.

Yours in peace and quietness, VOLCANO.

AMUSEMENTS.

FIRST THEATRICAL PERFORMANCE IN GRANADA.

On Thursday night, the Pioneer Theatre, was opened in Granada. Several members of the stage, who have wandered off from the east to take part in the drama of Nicaraguan independence, concluded on a bit of by play of their own, and arranged a company to give recitations, songs, dances, and do up the routine of theatre life in regular fashion. Mr. Carter, with sundry supernumeraries not mentioned in the bill constituted this original band; and adopted Thursday night on which to introduce themselves to the public. The room was crowded, and in the reserved seats we noticed several ladies. The music was selected from the army band. Taken as a whole, the performances were well given, and as a matter of course frequently encored. The dancing was ex-

The most peculiar feature of the occasion was the trait it brought out in the American people. Thursday was an exciting day in the city, as reports were abroad that the enemy was already at Nindiri, seventeen miles from town, and a fight was expected at Massaya in the morning. But few could doubt these reports, and every preparation was made to send out reinforcements if any advantages were lost by our forces at Massaya. Despite all these circumstances, calculated to inspire every one with serious thought, a theater was organized, and the eager throng poured into it as if no apprehensions were felt in the garrison. It was the same, too, last October, when our forces attacked Fort San Carlos. While the firing was going on, some one entered the saloon of the ball went off within sound of a battle. We hope the Pioneer Theatre will continue its steamer, where a ball was in progress, and informed the dancers that the firing had commenced. "That's their business," said the dancers, and the

CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM PINEDA CITY.

Peneda, Sept. 24th, 1856.

Editor Nicaraguense:-Supposing that the doings of San Juan del Sur would be acceptable news to you, I have determined to give you an inkling of events here since the death of your esteemed correspondent Cyrus, who has paid that debt which all are bound to pay.

The first thing that attracts our attention here is hearing every morning the O yes! O yes! of the Marshal of the Court of First Instance, opening Court. It sounds strange, but still cheering, as it gives us hopes that this country so long sunk in the depths of Revolution and retrogression, is now advancing by these signs to hold the place that God and Nature assigns to her-the Paradise both as to Nature and to every other good thing that belongs to the world.

Our Hon. Judge here well befits the place he holds. Dignified, upright and just in his Court, he upholds its dignity with a firm and steady hand, and although a little irregular in his habits at first, he has nobly redeemed himself, since by his course of conduct, under the difficulties he labored when he first came here, very few men would have established so uniform a course of proceedings, founded in good sense and a proper appreciation of law. Although young, he shows a profound and erudite mind, as regards the law.

C. C. Nukerck, our Governor, and Collector of Customs, has earned himself a truly praiseworthy reputation. Popular with the natives of the country, he still holds the place amongst the adopted citizens, as being a polite and dignified gentleman, one that is well qualified to hold the offices he now

One of our friends here contemplates shortly to proceed to England, to place capital here sufficient to work the gold mines in his possession. The extent of these mines is not known, but their riches are almost fabulous. Success to him. I hope that he may reap all the benefits of his public spirit, and become that envied creature millionaire.

We have still another welcome addition to our society here-Wm. Moody-one who lends wit and glowing words to his conversation, which shortens time and makes us feel as if we were brought back to the halcyon days of youth. Nothing new here-slight interludes of labor, and these of well won enjoyment, after the money earned. More in the next.

NOMME DE PLUME.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.-Mr. Diehl, the Grand Worthy Patriarch of California, will deliver a Lecture on Temperance to-morrow evening, after parade, in front of the Convent of San Francisco. The garrison is respectfully requested to be present; and our word for it—there will be no harm done if every American in Granada should drop around at the hour, about half-past five.

After the address, a Temperance Society will be formed, and before Mr. Diehl leaves, he proposes to establish a Division of the Sons of Temperance SALE OF CONFISCATED PROPERTY. We call attention to the advertisement on our sixth page, advertising a sale of Confiscated Property on the first day of January next. We do not vary from the truth at all when we say that much of the property appraised in the advertised list is put at a price one third below what it will bring, and one half what it is worth. Speculators abroad will see that this chance is not allowed to go by default.

BAPTISM AT SEA .- On the passage of the Tennessee to San Juun del Norte, the wife of Mr. Plewiozinsky gave birth to a boy, which was subsequently baptised by the Rev. Israel S. Dichl. The name given to the little fellow was William Walker Plewiozinsky. The mother is now in this city and the little namesake of the President is doing finely.

PERSONAL.-The Rev. Israel S. Diehl, a gentleman well known all over California, for his untiring exertions in the cause of temperance, arrived in this city by the last steamer. Mr. Diehl, we are pleased to say, is a friend of Nicaragua, and expresses a high opinion of the country.

RAINY .- It was feared by some that our wet eason was going to turn out a rather dry affair, but the way the liquid has poured down the past three or four nights will, we expect, dispel the PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR'S OFFICE.-Mr. Titus, Public Administrator, has established his office in the corner room on the plaza next door to the El Nicara guense.

MARCY'S NOTE ON PRIVATEERING.

MR. MARCY's dispatch in reply to the proposition in the Paris Treaty to abolish privateering in future wars between maritime nations, is attracting much attention in Europe, and nearly all the organs of the commercial interests in England award it high praise. The following extracts from an article in the London Star, a Cobdenite journal, will show how the American view of the question is regarded by the English trading class-

What are our Shipowners about?—A di-plomatic negotiation is going on between the French and American governments, (to which we French and American governments, (to which we were the first to call attention,) involving the interests of every man owning property at sea. The question at issue is—whether, in case of war, capital afloat shall enjoy the same exemption from spoliation as it does in civilized countries ashore—a question affecting, above all others, a maritime country like this, which is said, on good authority, always to have from sixty to eighty millions worth of property at sea.

always to have from sixty to eighty millions worth of property at sea.

It will be recollected that at the Congress at Paris the following declarations were agreed to by the great powers represented there:—

"1. Privateering is and remains abolished.

"2. The neutral flag covers enemy's goods, with the exception of contraband of war.

"3. Neutral goods, with the exception of contraband of war, are not liable to capture under enemy's flag."

And it was agreed, at the instance of Count Walewski, that these resolutions should be offered for the concurrence of other powers not represented in Congress. The French Government have in consequence made a communication to that of ed in Congress. The French Government have in consequence made a communication to that of Washington upon the subject, and the detailed answer of Mr. Secretary Marcy has just been given to the world. The American Foreign Secretary at once gives his adhesion to the second and third resolutions, and claims 'credit to the American Government for having been the first to advocate them. With respect to the first point, abolishing privateering, an interesting argument is given to show that to put down the robbery of private individuals on the sea, by privateers only, and leave the savage practice to be still perpetuated by Government ships of war, would be only a simulated act of justice and humanity on the part of great naval powers, and would leave those nations which do not keep up a large naval force in a worse comact of justice and numanity on the part of great naval powers, and would leave those nations which do not keep up a large naval force in a worse comparative position than at present. The American Secretary winds up his argument (which we advise everybody to read for himself, and not allow his newspaper to read it for him) with this important announcement, that the President authorizes him to propose to add to the declaration of the Congress of Paris the following words: "And that the private property of the subjects or citizens of a belligerent on the high seas shall be exempted from seizure by public armed vessels of the other belligerents, except it be contraband of war."

We ask again,—have not our shipowners and foreign merchants something to say in favor of this proposal? Why should these propositions in the interest of an improved humanity come from the United States, and not ourselves? And why should it be left to France and America to come to an agreement on so obvious a case of individual right and justice, and then force England into a an agreement on so obvious a case of individual right and justice, and then force England into a reluctant acquiescence, as has been already the case with the second and third resolutions above referred to? Is it because we are really, with all our boasting, more under the dominion of the ideas of the middle ages,—of feudalism on shore and buccaneering at sea,—than any other civilized people?

we are to adopt for our rule the second and third of the Paris resolutions.

NEW ORANGES .- The first oranges of the new crop are just making their appearance on the Transit'Line; and in a month the passengers by the route will probably be able to procure any quantity at almost any price. At present they are selling six for a dime.

COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS .- Mr. J. W. Auston has been appointed Collector of Customs for the port of Granada, in place of Mr. Charles Callahan, so unfortunately killed at the fight of San Jacinto.

An exchange remembers seeing a bill in a shop window, a few years ago, which ran precisely thus: "These premises to let on a lease—one hundred and fifteen feet in length.

Not Dead .- The report that Mrs. Lydia Maria Child, the authoress, had died in Europe, is contradicted. It is said she is now living in Boston, and has never been in Europe.

A prospectus of a Joint Stock Company entitled "the Costa Rica Railroad Company," has been issued in Liverpool, and shares are already taken to the extent of £200,000.

DIED-On the evening of the 21st inst., Mr. EDWIN DAVIDSON, of brain fever, aged 20 years, formerly from California.

But this unfortunate report was spread by the Captain with whom I have lately had a quarrel, in the hope that he would inherit all the property which I have so carefully collected during my stay in the Republic, and which consists of one camp stool, two boxes of matches, and the bottle in which we kept our stock of aguardiente. I was out of the city when my calumniators began to cook up the fowl tail which has been so eagerly swallowed. But one swallow does not make a summer, although several swallows of this cocktail have brought on the Winter of my discontent; and all this happened because my traducers neglected to season the tail they so industrionsly served out to the public. When I returned I could only pursue the course open to men of honor; nor did I pursue far before I caught it. I hit upon an expedient to bring the Captain to justice, but, unfortunately, I hit it so hard that I injured myself more than I did him. An idea then struck me that I ought to call him out, but it struck so hard that it deprived me of the powers of speech-I could not, therefore call him out. A friend kindly volunteered to do it for me, but as soon as he appeared at the quarters of my enemy he found he could enly do the thing by halves, as the Captain hurled a defiance with such force at his head as to stun him for a moment. Now my friend is such a regular trump-when he knows he's right, he's the left bower, or at least-that when proceeding in such course he cannot be taken aback, and re covering a little he threw an insinuation in the teeth of the Captain which I am credibly informed dislocated several of his molars, to say nothing of the number of teeth which it more or less injured. Here the rage of my friend went beyond all bounds, and it might have continued to travel to this day were it not that it could not cross the ravine. The Captain lost all control of his temper, and was obliged to call the officer of the guard, and a file of soldiers to force it into a state of subordination is thus lost to the State of Nicaragua forever. They both, at length, came to a resolution which, by a great effort, thev succeeded in moving a little-they endeavoured to carry it, but failed. They both then took a determined stand, and dividing equally between them retired from the field. I had not ceased wondering at the efforts my friend had made in my behalf, and expressing my thankfulness, when a note was put into my hand, from the Captain, requesting me to meet him immediately at the well known house of "Terms Cash," where prompt settlements usually place. As I had never received any credit at the thing, I consented. The Captain had arrived before me. I could see much wrath, and a few pimples upon his face, which convinced me that he meant something. Of course the calm dignity of my countenance proved to the Captain, at once, that I was "up to snuff,"

"Bricks," says the Captain, with the voice of a wooden ox-cart; "Bricks, choose your weapons."

"Pocket pistols, across the table," said I. confident of a victory.

The weapons were produced without delaytossed up for the first shot-the Captain won, and took such a swig as convinced me it was going to be no easy fight. He handed me the weapon across the table-he knew how Bricks could use it-determined not to disappoint him, and savagely drained its contents to the very bottom. True courage is always respected, and I could see a twinkle of admiration in the Captain's eye.

"Reload, old skin flint," said the Captain.

"Terms Cash," growled the landlord as the fatal weapon was again placed in our hands. Captain made a desperate effort to discharge its contents-failed-handed it to me -it was as dry as a powder horn in a second. I could see that the Captain began to turn a little pail, (which stood close to him,) while I preserved my equanimity in the spirit of conciliation. The weapon was again loaded to the very muzzle, and placed in the hands of the Captain, whose hands were becoming so very unsteady that he was unable to take proper aim, and were it not that I seized the instrument of destruction and wrenched it from his hands, he would have poured the contents of it into his breast. With an energy inspired by the hope of a proud and glorious triumph, I again discharged the contents of the pocket pistol (and travelling companion) into the precise spot I wanted it to lodge. At the fourth round the Captain was unable to come to time, and the affair was amicably arranged by the friends of both parties taking a shot all around at each other. The Captain then apologized to Bricks, and Bricks apologized to the Captain, and both apologized to everybody, and everybody apologized to each other, and all expressed their firm conviction that Bricks is not dead yet.

A "FARMER'S BOY" in Barren county advertises for a wife. He says:

He wants to know if she can milk And make his bread and butter, And go to meeting without silk, To make a "show and flutter."

He'd like to know if it would hurt Her hands to take up stitches; Or sew the buttons on his shirt, Or make a pair of breeches.

TRANSIT ROUTE.

After a long suspension, the Nicaragua Transit Line seems to be reviving to a renewed activity. Notwithstanding the combination of untoward events which have marred its usefulness and darkened its prospects, its natural and geographical advantages will assert themselves to command the travel from the east to the west. The commercial and nomadic peoples have been engaged for the last three centuries in endeavors to find the easiest aud nearest route to India; and as successive navigators have achieved the triumph of securing the vast trade of that almost unknown orient, so then their country has for a time held the supremacy of the seas. Tyre, founded upon an island, sent its trade into the mysterious east, and therefrom drew the wealth that rivalled Solomon's. Antioch and Nineveh, Bagdad and Smyrna, with their camel trains, secured a fabulous wealth from the trade of India; and Thebes with its hundred gates, had no foundation for its extent but the passing commerce that traversed the deserts to reach the Mediteranean. When Alexander founded his favorite city, and called it after himself, he exhibited all the qualities of a statesman and a merchant, for he saw that the wealth of the world he had sought to conquer passed out into the western seas through an Egyptian port, of old as well as of late. It therefore runs, that all nations have labored and fought for that great market; and when Alexandria declined, Venice and Genoa yielded their fortune to Portugal, she rose in power only to wave before the slow and persevering race that reclaimed Holland from the waste of swamps and waters. Then Albion, from her wave rocked shores, asserted a claim to the east; and as the coral builds his reef, so she cumulated strength on strength in that densely peopled world, until now her subjects are counted in greater numbers than peopled the world when the Macedonian founded his kingdom on all the dynasties that held sway when his victorious legions crossed the Indus. And yet the right is not settled. Daring men still explore around the Artic seas for a new and nearer channel; and bold men with money and intellect, assail a very continent to cut a route from one ocean to the other, that ships may pass right on to the markets of Canton, Calcutta, Nankin, and Money has taken the place of arms, shrewdness has vanquished strength, and we have the struggle between England and America for a monopoly of the Pacific trade. Annexation and increased steam facilities are being used by the British East India Company to keep that control they have won by so much blood, treasure and dishonor; while American energy is competing in an hundred ways to divide and finally to conquer a mastery of the trading perquisites coming out of the commerce of China, Hindostan and Tartary. By a decree published three weeks since, the Government of Nicaragua ceded all its rights to the Transit route and all the property used on the line, embracing warehouses, etc., together with whatever lands the company may need to carry on its business, and also the macadamized road from Virgin to San Juan del Sur. The consideration paid for this property and the grant was four hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and the company bound itself to establish ocean steamers on both sides of the continent. It is also bound to transport government mails, troops, etc., free of charge, and to pay into the treasury of the State a certain price for every passenger, and so much per centage on its profits. The grant extends for twenty-one years, and is given to perfectly responsible parties who are willing to make the Nicaragua route from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean better than any other. The company is already aware of the receipts and expenditures of the old Accessery Transit Line; and it is also fully informed as to the necessities of the enterprise. New steamboats are wanted on the lake and river to conduct a transportation which will be larger than any ever known in the State; a railroad will be required on the San Juan river, or else certain improvements will have to be made on the stream itself; convenient wharves and commodions ware bouses are necessary to accelerate shipments and protect goods; protection for life and property must be guaranteed; good accomodations must be established on the line of transit; regular, comfortable and swift steamers, with accommodating officers, should be placed upon the ocean routes; anda quick and easy land carriage furnished from Virgin to San Juan. With all these advantages, and the company will be blind to its own interests if they are not adopted, the Nicaraguan route will soon become the established and favorite line of travel by the people going from California to the eastern states of the Union.

In conformity to these necessities, patent to every mind, the company has already commenced work; and a large number of hands are now busy along the whole extent of the line making those things straight which were heretofore objectionable. Under a competent director, in the person of Col. McDonald, the most efficient system of works ever originated or carried on the State, are now being hurried to a completion. There no longer exists any necessity for landing the passengers at Virgin Bay in boats, but the steamers run alongside and moor to the wharf. At San Juan, a store-ship has been sunk just inside the point, a short distance from the shore, and laborers are busy building a solid wharf so as to connect the sunken ship with the shore. Hereaster the ocean steamers will run alongside of a whar which not only serves the purposes of a landing, but will also operate in some degree as a break water to the harbor. The road is being put in the most complete repair. Drains are dug on either side to lead off the water: stones are laid where time and use have damaged the macada mized track; uneven places are being leveled down; barriers are erected where the traveler is exposed to fall over any of the declivities; and in a few days the road will be completely renewed between the lake and the ocean. A large number of animals are being fatted up and trained for the travel across; and the wagons and ambulances are repainted and many of them are replaced with new vehicles. The hotels at both ends of the line, and also at San Carlos and Castillo are being put in order, and in San Juan the accomodations will be better than ever. In Virgin Bay the landlords will commence improving immediately after the transit of the next passengers. Even the natives look more lively and hopeful, and are quite industrious in the cultivation of fruit and the raising of chickens.

On the lake, we are told, new improvements will be made in the steamboats. The next steamer will probably arrive at San Juan about the 4th of October, and after her passengers are crossed, the San Carlos will be overhauled and turned into a North river or Mississippi river boat, with cabins and comfortable accommodation for cabin and s.eerage passengers. She will be so altered too, that meals can be furnished on board, thus doing away the "starvation system" so much complained of under the Vanderbilt regime. One or two new boats will be upon the river, and as soon as the route is thoroughly organized, the contract for a railroad on the river around the falls will be let out, thus obviating any necessity in the lowest stage of the water, for any lighting or walking around the falls. All these various improvements, are in contemplation under the superintence of Capt. Scott, whose well known energy and ability are a sure guarantee of their completion if once commenced.

When these matters are attended to, and peace is thoroughly restored to the State, the Nicaraguan route must become not only the nearest and quickest, but decidedly the most pleasant one to travel over. Americans and Europeans will find here a race of people in command whose habits they understand, whose liability they appreciate and endorse, and whose ability can not be gainsaid. Besides, it will traverse a state filled with the most attractive scenery, memorable for its revolutions, and curious for its rare antiquities. The savant will find in Nicaragua matter of study, the historian will gather material for his labor, the tourist will catch such scenes as Italy cannot surpass, and the invalid will find a climate in which sickness is almost unknown. Hundreds of persons traveling east and west, will make it a point to remain over one or two trips to explore a country unrivalled for its beauty and rolling in untold wealth. Speculation can point to no wider field for investment than is here offered to capital; and wealth will see innumerable of spots on which it can lavish thousands of dollars to create a home and a residence that could not be surpassed in the far-famed chateaus that deck the Rhine or lend enchantment to the lakes of Central Europe.

HISTORY OF NICARAGUA.—We continue to publish in the Spanish portion of our paper the history of Nicaragua written in 1752, by Padre Augustin Morell. It is only interesting as a part of the record of those old times of which we have but few writings, and will assist the future historian in making his book reliable in regard to the state of this country in the eighteenth century.

ESTATES FORFEITED IN THE RIVAS DISTRICT.

In our issue of last week, speaking of the estates forfeited in the Rivas Department, we adverted to the fact that there was a great similarity in the whole, and that the greatest difference was in the situation, and appearence of the ground. The great object among the natives of this country appeared to be to make every thing of the same kind look as much the same as possible. And this goes to show their want of creative genius. Under such a mode they could advance but little, for instead of exercising their intellectual faculties in endeavouring to improve upon the present, as the people of the United States do, they contented themselves following after what was already done. They do not originate, but merely imitate. But from the nature of things they could not make every thing precisely the same in appearance. Some haciendas are small, and others large. They vary from a few hundred acres, to several square miles in extent. Of the smaller there are but few better situated, or more desirable than the

Which is distant from the city of Rivas only about one mile and a half. The road which leads to it is in most excellent condition throughout the entire year—and its vicinity to the market affords its proprietors facilities of taking advantage of any favorable change in the price of their products. The road to the Pital estate, from Rivas, is like a path in a flower garden that has been allowed to run wild; it is lined with beautiful shade trees, and fruit grows wild along the entire distance.

Like many other haciendas about Rivas the Pital has been of late somewhat neglected. It is entered from the main road through an arched gateway which, with very little attention might be made quite ornamental. In front of this gate, and about fifty yards from the road stands a large house which is at present uninhabited, and in the rear of this, distant about thirty yards is a still larger house, apparently in good condition, occupied by the natives who work upon the estate. This house has a corridor along its entire front. As it faces upon the North, and as the house is at an elevation a person may sit at the front door all day without being at any time in the sunlight.

The elevation upon which the larger house stands is a ridge which slopes away at the other side, towards the cacao plantation. The space intervening between where the cacao grows, and the houses would answer admirably for a garden.

The name of the Pital here described stands first on the "List of the Haciendas of Cacao in the Department of Rivas," published in El Nicaraguense. It belonged formerly to Juan Jose Ruiz. The cacao part is entered by a barred gate at the right hand corner of the enclosure in which the houses stand. The trees look in very good condition, and the grounds upon which they grow are tolerably clear from weeds. Through the center runs a stream of water, which drains the whole hacienda, and which, in dry seasons might be made available for irrigating purposes.

There are about fifteen thousand cacao trees upon the Pital, between the ages of eight, and twenty years. A large crop of fruit has been gathered from them during the season just ended.

CANDELARIA.

This valuable hacienda, late the property of José Antonia Lopez, is situate at a distance about two miles from the city of Rivas. It is a very desirable property from the fact that all the trees upon it are very young, yet all bear fruit. There is upon it, a large number of the plantain, and banana trees; the soil is very rich, the undulations of the surface favorable to the highest state of cultivation, and the estate is in good condition. There are, upon it twenty thousand, four hundred and thirty-five trees, all of which are only about eight years of age. The trees alone are, therefore, worth nearly twenty-four thousand dollars.

Paraizo.

The hacienda of Paraizo, formerly belonging to Juan José Ruiz is situate at a distance of about two miles from Rivas. It is one of the most pleasantly situated haciendas in the State. It has been kept in excellent care, and contains seventeen thousand one hundred and ninety six casas, which range from six, to eighteen years of age. Each casa contains two trees.. Through this excellent hacienda runs three fine streams, which afford a never-failing supply of water. There are two never-failing supply of water. houses upon it; one, which is called the cacao house is large, new, and ir good condition. The fruit grown upon the Paraizo is of first quality, and the crop gathered for the season just ended was very large. This estate is valuable especially as the trees are all in their prime.

ESPERANZA.

This fine hacienda, owned formerly by Patricio Rivas and Sons, is situate about a mile and a half from the town of St. George, or about three miles from Rivas. The road to it from St. George is a very delightful one to travel, and the houses are so plentiful upon its sides that a person scarcely suspects he has got out of the limits of the town when he arrives at this estate. There appears to have been much care bestowed upon the planning and arranging of this fine farm.

A large new house, in very good condition, stands directly in front of a gate through which the hacienda is entered from the road. This house is surrounded by a large field which extends back some three hundred yards. Along the entire boundary of this field is a row of young cocoa nut trees, whose broad fern-leaf branches, waving to and fro, present a very picturesque appearance. At present there grows in this field a large quantity of corn, and other useful vegetables. The field is level, and appears to be admirably adapted for garden purposes. There is an excellent well of water in the rear of the building, near the back door.

The hacienda of Esperanza contains about twenty thousand cacao trees, some of which have only just begun to bear fruit; but the persons who have been left in charge of the farm have not used the diligence necessary for keeping the estate in good order; hence weeds are springing up among the trees, the fences do not appear in the best order, and the whole estate has a somewhat neglected appearance.

CITY PROPERTY CONFISCATED.

In the city of Rivas there is much property that has reverted to the government through the treasonable actions of the late proprietors. Some of this property is situated in the very center of the city, and is admirably located for the purposes of business. There are other houses, and lands in retired places, and better adapted for private dwellings. The house of fronts the east side of the large, unfinished, stone church. The house appears to be in a very good condition for tenants. It has attached to it a large yard which is well fenced. The house has a very extended front, having no less than four doors on the side next the church. It is built upon a corner of the plaza, and has a door and window upon the street at its upper end. Upon this street stands, also, the frame of a good sized building, which, with very little cost might be made a very snug dwelling house. There is, already, a good roof of tiles upon the frame, the casements of the doors and windows are in, the timbers are strong, and very good materials have, so far, been used in its construction.

On the south east corner of the plaza is a large house which was formerly the property of Jose Alfaro.

It also fronts to the large church, and has upon its front side six doors, and three windows. It is, at present, unoccupied. There is attached to it a large garden, which with little labor would produce sufficient garden vegetables for the support of a large family. It is pleasantly situated for a private residence, and its proximity to the plaza renders it a good business location.

One of the most noticable places in the city of

THE GREAT MART.

It occupies the entire northern end of the plaza—fronting the large church—and has been partially burned. Judging from the extent and magnitude of its ruins, it must have been the largest pile of buildings in the city not devoted to eclesiastical purposes. The part now standing is occupied by the natives as retail stores, in front of which women expose fruit and other commodities for sale, as they do along the range of houses in Granada, in the center of which stands the barracks of the native regiments.

At first a person is apt to deplore the ruin of such fine buildings, in such a good position; but upon a second thought it will be apparent that, in this case, it is rather an advantage. The location is too valuable to allow, for any great length of time, an adobe to stand upon it, hence the trouble and cost of tearing down so much rubbish has been rendered unnecessary. Before long American enterprise will erect, upon the site of the Great Mart of Rivas, a great hotel—for which it is admirably adapted—or some large public hall which will serve at once as an ornament to the city, and a source of great revenue to its possessor.

There are, also, many other houses in the city of Rivas which to describe separately would occupt too much space, but which are as good as the

There are, also, many other houses in the city of Rivas which to describe separately would occupy too much space, but which are as good as the best houses in any of the Spanish towns. Some of them would make excellent hotels, many of them are already fitted up as stores, and others—as good as new—are superior as places of private residence.

[Communicated.] ADDRESS TO THE SOLDIERS ON TEM-PERANCE.

I have for many months been witnessing the scenes occuring in Nicaragua, some of which have caused enthusiasm and delight, while others were of a painfully melancholy character.

It is with the hope of rendering the latter less frequent that I have undertaken to pen these lines. No changes concerning this army have escaped my observation. No influences have been brought to bear upon its soldiers that could in any way interfere with their health and happiness, or retard the progress of the enterprise in which they so nobly enlisted and have so bravely sustained, have been allowed to pass without reflexion. I have not been an idle observer; for in many of these scenes I have participated ex necessitate, I have felt the same almost irresistible influences, and, until now, have remained in silence. There are many disadvantages under which we have labored, and of these I shall mention but one. the only one, to, which could have induced me to venture my feeble sentiments upon the sea of publicity. If they are wrecked, it is but a trifling loss; should they reach their destination and ac complish the object for which they are hazarded, the consolation of having benefited the public will more than compensate me.

This disadvantage which is to be the subject of the few remarks I have yet to make is, Intemper-

The mere mention of it is almost sufficient, for why should I attempt to enumerate and elucidate the evils originating from the use of ardent spirits? Every day adds to the number, and its horrible effects are rendered more and more apparent. Recall the past if you would have proof of the ruin it has occasioned in Nicaragua, visit the guard-house, go to the grave-yard, where sleep many of your noblest and bravest comrades, who fell victims to this horrible vice.

Many causes have been assigned for their deaths, yet every reflecting mind must perceive that intemperance is the truly principal cause. I do not deny that many have died of fever and cholera, but if you would trace their history back to the first moment of their illness, you will find that nine out of every ten were either intoxicated or had been dissipating a very short time previous to Ask the prisoner at the guard-house why he is fettered, the almost invariable response is, that, "I was inebriated," and he even has the audiacity to offer this pitiful excuse for having perpetrated a crime that the devil himself would blush to own. Intemperance is the greatest curse that has ever befallen man. Statistics have even proved it more destructive than the sword, and I regret to say that such is the case in our own little army. It is the only barrier, now, between General Walker and his ultimate triumph, were it removed he would soon have the gratification of knowing that he was placed far above the reach of his enemies; where in quietude, the gradual increase of honors and of wealth would enable him to build a monument to fame, more durable than any ever affected by mortal heroism. Not he alone would be rewarded, for you, soldiers, who have shared his toils and dangers, would alike share his glory and the luxury of his success.

Soldiers, you have undergone many hardships, you have travelled manfully the path of danger, you have surmounted many obstacles, but until you have conquered rum, difficulties will continue to rise, the waves of trouble will roll higher and higher, and thus procrastinate the glorious victory, that is to establish a quiet and permanent government. Let me entreat you to abandon the habit at once; do not take it even in moderation, for this leads to chriosity. Some men argue that with them it is a constitutional necessity. This is a mistake; it is not conducive to health. Nature has not so constituted us that it is indispensable for us to introduce a poison into the system, in order to preserve health. Any man conversant with the effects which liquor produces upon the animal economy, can at once see the sophistry and absurdity of such an argument. It is a stimulant and I admit that there are cases of disease in which it may be used to advantage, but there are only two or three cases where it has a decided advantage over all other remedies. It is taken by some on account of its exhilarating qualities; it is rue that at first it sharpens the intellect, that is it excites, it stimulates the mental as well as the physical man; but all stimulating beyond the natural standard of health, must be followed by a dejection equal to the amount of excitement that has been produced. I do not intend to argue this question in a medical point of view, because almost every man knows from experience how years hard labor.

a drunken man feels when the liquor has "died out of him" (to use a common phrase) you too well remember the languid countenance, the great lack of physical energy, the inability to exert the powers of the mind, occasioned by the narcotic property this article possesses, which renders the brain comatose. All this you well know, but you do not know the morbid condition of a drunkard's stomach, could you see it once (and vomit heartily, as I believe you would) I think you would hardly feel inclined to follow in his footsteps.

Now, soldiers, if you wish to attain bappiness, if you wish to fill responsible positions, if you wish to gain the respect of every man, if you wish to promote the enterprise in which you have enlisted, if you desire to gladden the heart of your Commander-in-Chief, you have but to resolve within yourselves that you will drink no more, and in less than one month you will exclaim, "mirabile dictu," for your accomplishments will be wonderful indeed. To all who lay the flattering unction to their souls that they are exceptions to the general rules, and continue to hug the delusive phantom to their bosoms, I would say take heed of the awful warnings you have so lately had.

NEW ARTICLE OF EXPORT .- Who has ever traveled over the road from Rivas to Virgin Bay or San Juan, and not felt called upon to "cuss" the chattering monkeys that infest the woods on the line of his passage. If dogs, yelping and snarling at night, under the very window of a sleeping room, disturb a subject of the ennui, some idea may be formed of the vexation to which the victim was subjected whose business carried him beneath the bending trees that meet and lace above the road to Rivas. We remember traveling along that section once when an enemy might be looked for in every bush, and although every noise was a danger and every shot from our revolver a fearful loss, still the temptation was too great, and before Rivas was made, every charge had been used in settling accounts with the grinning chattering monkeys overhead. Then, to kill one was profitless, and many squeamish people thought the country ought to pass a law against the wanton destruction of monkeys. We differed in opinion but our mind has since undergone somewhat of a change. The monkey trade is a useful one, and ornamental too. It is useful, for at present when a poor devil about San Juan finds himself in want of a breakfast and without the money to pay for it, he takes his gun and a short trip in the woods supplies him, (if he is any thing of a shot,) with half a-dozen monkey skins, and these he can sell, according to quality, at from three dimes up to nine dimes apiece. Several persons in San Juan are engaged in purchasing these skins and sending them to France, where they sell for fifteen dimes apiece. They are there converted into a very delicate skin and are returned to us in the shape of gloves at two dollars a pair. In Brazil this trade is carried on extensively, and it is estimated that the annual export amounts to $100,-000. We have probably thrown out a hint in the above item that may furnish some man with the means of a livelihood.

COFFEE CROP .- A large number of the estates confiscated in the Rivas Department are known to have considerable groves of coffee trees on them; but we are told that for the past two years, owing to the unsettled condition of the State, the coffee has not been gathered. At present the new crop is just beginning to ripen, and in a few weeks we shall see this market supplied with a good article of coffee of native growth. The coffee tree grows with but little cultivation, and blossoms in three years after being planted. A farm can be very easily extended by removing the plants which grow up around the roots of the first bearing tree, and one ranch we know of on which there is at present but one thousand trees, could in two years be made to grow fifty thousand. We have now no data on which to found an estimate of the quantity of coffee grown in this State; but we can safely say that Nicaragua, in two years, could be made to export the article.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.—A young Cuban named Isidro Peilon, formerly attached to the Department of State under Don Fermin Ferrer, accidentally shot himself at Masaya. He was aftempting to lift his gun from the ground, when the cock caught in the stirrup and exploded the charge. was a very amiable young man, could talk English, French, Italian and Spanish with fluency, and was therefore much needed.

CONVICTED OF RAPE. -- An old man named Blastelles, native of the country, was tried in Rivas last week before Judge Jackson, on a charge of rape and convicted. He was sentenced to five [Correspondence of Masava Herald.] LETTER FROM MANAGUA.

MANAGUA, Sept. 16, 1856.
Our city is not celebrated for its magnificence or the splendor of its social festivities: its volcanic ranges, its beautiful lake—with its mournful whisperings at the dewy hour of eve—are the only sights which bring joy to the eye, or feeds the soul with music. We now and then scare up some-thing to relieve the dull tedium of sameness with which we are mentally oppressed, and one of these happenings occurred on the evening previous to Col. McIntosh's departure from this post to assume command at Masaya. It was wash-day, and the fates smiled upon us; we were paid our washmoney and we smiled, too. Thereupon we determined to have a fete-a regular supportation of the second states o money and we smiled, too. Thereupon we determined to have a fete—a regular supper—in compliment to the Colonel. A contribution was levied and most gallantly responded to; a sufficiency of funds having thus been raised, a committee was despatched in search of the eatables, and forth with chickens, eggs, chocolate, and that indispensable article to grace the board—tortillas, were speedily functions. furnished.

The committee here appeared and reported a small amount of funds on hand, which, by acclamation, was voted to be spent in aguardiente. This last and most agreeable addition having been received, the ball opened: the eatables were soon "turned in," amid much good humor and a cart load of jokes. This over, the cloth was removed, and the aguardiente next claimed our attention; and you may depend upon it, it was attended to according to the most acceptable rules of Gunter or Hoyle, as you like.

- The RECEPTION OF A NICARAGUAN OFFICER.-Albany, New York, papers state that Captain J. McCardle, of the Nicaragua Army, who was wounded at the battle of Rivas, and who is now absent on farlough, arrived in that city and met with a public reception. At the City Hotel he was addressed by Recorder Paddock and made a happy response. Captain McCardle deserved so favorable a reception for his valiant conduct on the field of SIGNS OF PEACE.—If any Department of this State is loyal to the present state of affairs, it must be the Meridional, if outward evidences afford us any right to come to a conclusion. On Thursday morning last, five marriages took place in the church, and the next day seven happy couples were tied together in the same place. Connubial speculations seem to have inspired the population in that vicitity with the strongest desire to live together.

STEAMERS.—The Lake steamer San Carlos, Capt. Errisson, arrived in this harbor last Monday. She left in a few hours for Virgin and returned again on the next day. The San Carlos is one of the most pleasant boats to travel on we have ever encountered, and her officers deserve the greatest credit for the cleanliness observable in every thing on board.

ARRIVAL OF COFFEE. -For a week or two this market has been almost without coffee, and the price rose as high as thirty-five cents per pound. A schooner arrived in San Juan last Monday with a large quantity on board, which will supply the want and reduce the price.

PERSONAL .- We had the pleasure the other day of receiving a visit from Mr. St. Levy, the editor of the Massaya Herald. His appearance is so comfortable that we infer the Herald is prospering. Great place that, Massaya.

THEATER FELLOWS .- Some genius down eas has turned the present revolution in Nicaragua to some account by writing a Drama upon the subject, entitled, "Nicaragua or Gen. Walker's Victories!" It has had a great run in Philadelphia. We give the caste as it was lately performed on the 26th of July, at Purdy's National Theatre, Philadelphia:

TRIUMPH!

A good story is told of an officer in the American army, during the war of 1812-'14 who was and is still, more accustomed to the use of the sword than the pen. While stationed on the Lake and is still, more accustomed to the use of the sword than the pen. While stationed on the Lake frontier, two of his soldiers, brothers, by the name of Kennedy, usually called Kannady, deserted. The officer of whom we are speaking, wrote an order, and issued it to a subaltern, to take a file of men, and proceed to a place named, and take the two Canadas. The order was peremptory, and not be trifled with. The officer looked at his instructions, and prepared to obey them, but he not to be trifled with. The officer rooked as ma-instructions, and prepared to obey them, but he remarked that he did not believe he could take more than one of the provinces without a rein-

AMERICAN RIFLES FOR ENGLAND.—An order for 25,000 American rifles, with the Minie sight and knob for the "lock bayonet," is in course of execution at the extensive works at Windsor, Vt., cution at the extensive works at Windsor, Vt., and is now probably half completed. Another order for 10,000 Sharpe's rifles, also on account of parties in England, is in course of fulfillment at Colt's factory in Harford.

From a recent issue of the Panameño we observe that Costa Rica has consented to join the Columbian Federation. The boundary between that country and New Granada was satisfactorily arranged by General Herran, without any territory being lost to the latter country.

It is said that, at the celebration of the Fourth of July in Birminghampton, the Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson, the President of the day, offered the following toast:

"The women of the Bevolution—mothers of The women of the Revolution-mothers of men and patriots. The women of to-day—hoop! hoop! hurrah!"

San Francisco.—During the last seven years, fourteen hundred murders, it is said, have been perpetrated in and about San Francisco, and the city itself has been burned down seven times.

ECHOS DE LOS SERVILES EN CEN-TRO-AMERICA.

ESFUERZOS DE LOS PATRIOTAS Y DE LOS Pueblos por tener un Gobierno de LEYES.

La Situacion.

CONTINUA.

Al referir acontecimientos en lo sustancial, que repetirá la historia de Centro-América con todos sus detalles, no nos guia mas que la verdad: no tenemos prevenciones personales de ningun género, ni el punto en que escribimos, genero, in el punto en que escribinos, influye en lo mas leve para dirijir nuestra pluma: nuestro objeto es grande y desnudo de pequeñas mirás, al recapitular los hechos mas notables de la revolucion tal cual han pasado y se están verificande, así como las tendencias y pretensiones de los partidos y los pueblos de Centro-América para que estor blos de Centro-América, para que estos formen el verdadero juicio de la situaeion y no se estravien del buen sentido, que conozcan el cammo del punto de salvacion y no sean sorprendidos, como otras veces por la astucia simulada del consiligno e Continuamos servilismo.—Continuamos.

El triunfo de la causa democrática en Nicaragua, fué un rayo que atonlondió é hizo temblar al servilismo y ásus ajentes apoderados de los gobiernos de los Estados, tanto porque ya juzgaban infalible la completa derrota y esterminio de los últimos restos del partido liberal, como por haber aparecido á la cabeza de ellos "un hombre." Al mismo tiempo, los pueblos tan largo periódo oprimidos y los patriotas de todas partes, en ese triunfo vieron una ráfaga de luz que los llenó de esperanzas, despues de tantos años de padecimientos en que han sido renetidos veces. mientos, en que han sido repetidas veces diezmados por las reacciones del obscurantismo

El gabinete de Carrera, como era natural, dió el primer grito de alarma y continuó invitando á los demas go-biernos; ya en comunicaciones directos ó ya por la prensa, para que se le u-niesen en su expedicion á Nicaragua: niesen en su expedicion á Nicaragua: parecia ya cierto que estaba en camino contra nosotros el héroe de Atescatempa; tales eran las amenazas y las calumnias que se dirijian á esta Administracion y á los americanos que la sostenian. Las gacetas del Salvador y Costarica repetian los desahogos del servilismo de Guatemala y el Gabinete Salvadoreño mandó un oficial portapliegos pidiendo esplicaciones á nuestro gobierpidiendo esplicaciones á nuestro gobier-no por el aumento de tropas en esta República: la contestacion era sabida desde luego, puesto que á la vez se dirijian tantas amenazas, pero el objeto del portapliegos se reducia á revistar nuestro Ejército &c. No supieron elejir al oficial para esa comision y vino uno que dio bastante que reir á todos, incapaz de llenar : u mision. Mandaba en el Salvador el Sr. Campos y viéndose atacado por las exijencias de Cararre por une porte y por esta las de rera por una parte y por otra las de la prensa y la opinion de los pueblos, prudentemente cedió el mando el Sr. Dueñas, á quien se atribuye mucha destreza en el manejo de los negocios de Estado. Si no nos equivocamos ha comenzado errando, pero un hombre del pueblo, ilustrado y que debe conocer que los serviles, jamas serán amigos de los Salvadoreños, es muy fácil que vuel-los Salvadoreños, es muy facil que vuelva sobre sus pasos, y Dios le de tino para hacerlo á tiempo.

Hemos tocado ya en la situación presente y debemos tomar el hilo de los acontecimientos.

El Jeneral Walker fué nombrado en

Leon por el Gobierno Provisorio Comandante en Jefe de las fuerzas de opeartículo anterior. dante en Jefe de las fuerzas de ope-Art. 3.º El Gobierno protejerá á raciones y á favor de un movimiento militar bien ejecutado, tomó esta plaza el 13 de Octubre á las seis de la mañana sin efusion de sangre. En Rívas Virgen, habia ya peleado dos veces contra fuerzas muy superiores. Se le presentaron todos los que tenian parti-cipio en la guerra: les dió garantías sin mas condicion que la de no tomar parte contra sus fuerzas. Se reunió la Municipalidad y dispuso mandar comisionados cerca del Jeneral Corral que permanecía en Rívas á la cabeza de una fuerte division, como en efecto fueron inmediatamente á proponerle arreglos de paz. Se nombró Prefecto de este Departamento al Ldo. don Fermin Ferrer. Corral tan pronto como supo la toma de esta plaza, se puso en marcha con toda su fuerza para Nandaime y allí se le incorporó Estrada, P. Joaquin Chamorro y otras personas menos notables. Los comisionados, encontraron en ese pueblo á Corral, quien en lugar de atender á su mision y contestar, les impidió que volviesen, llevándolos con-sigo á Masaya. Corral desde Nandaime se dirijió al

Ministro de los EE. UU. residente en esta ciudad; amenazándolo con no ser responsable de lo que pudiera sucederle en la entrada de sus tropas en ella. Otros comisionados que habian ido por agua á Rívas tampoco produjeron ningun resultado La perspectiva por parte de los contrarios no daba visos de arreglo ni de paz y mas bien se advertia en todo falaci, y hostilidad. El Jeneral Walker pulsó el estado de las cosas y mandó capturar á los princi-pales lejitimistas. Poco despues recibió un refuerzo de patriotas y reclutas americanos y al mismo tiempo supo el a-sesinato à sangre fria perpetrado en inofensivos pasageros que se dirijian á California por la via de tránsito esta-blecida y la muerte de una Sra. y su hija por un cañonazo de San Cárlos sobre un vapor de la Compañía de trasporte. El Jeneral creyó que estaba en el caso de hacer sentir al enemigo un castigo condigno por barbaridades tan diabólicas y mandó fusilar á Mayorga, notificando al mismo tiempo á Corral que permanecia en Masaya: que si en el dia no venia á arreglarse para ajustar la paz, dictaria las medidas indispensables á fin de poner término á la desastroza guerra que sufría Nicaragua: en el siguiente se presentó el Jeneral Corral y se ajustó el tratado de 23 de Octubre que todos conocen: los presos fueron puestos en libertad.

En consecuencia se organizó el Go-bierno en que fué Presidente Provisorio don Patricio Rivas. Unos dias des puls de planteada la nueva administracion, restablecida la paz, cuando se tra-bajaba para tranquilizar los ánimos inspirando confianza á todos y regularizando todo procedimiento, apareció un traidor. Habia sido nombrado Ministro de guerra el desgraciado Jeneral Corral funcionaba en su cartera alabando la jenerosidad con que se comportaba el Jeneral Walker, cuando fué convencido del horrible crimen de traicion: se le juzgó y fué fusilado. El Gobierno diri luego una circular á los demas Estados de Centro-América invitándolos á la union: no tuvieron ni la urbanidad contestar.

Entre tanto el Estado de Honduhabia sido conquistado por las trode Carrera y en tales circunstancias llegó á esta ciudad el Jeneral Cabañas solicitando auxilio para recobrarlo como su lejítimo Presidente. Dos años habian pasado de hostilidades y ataques de Carrera contra Honduras, á su modo acostumbrado, talándolo todo y sin ningun derecho ni pretesto para y sin ningun derecno ni pretesto para hacerle la guerra, y al fin fué tomado. El Jeneral Cabañas habia mandado al Gobierno Provisorio de Nicaragua durante el asedio de esta ciudad, repetidos auxilios, y se consideraba con derecho á obtener los que solicitaba contra el salvajismo introducido en Honduras, por reciprocidad y por la justicia de su causa, y lo hubiera conseguido, si la situacion de esta República lo permitiese. Nicaragua estaba amenazado por a mismo Carrera, por Mora, por por a mismo el Ministerio de ponerlo debia ser competente, y con sentimiento general, no pudo accederse á pretension del Jeneral Cabañas. El movimiento de las fuerzas de Nicaragua sobre Honduras en aquellas circunstancias, era intempestivo y ruinoso á la buena causa, á toda luz; como lo justifican la invasion de Costarica y los acontecimientos posteriores. El Jeneral Cabañas despues de haber sido tratado aquí por el Gobierno y el Jeneral en Jefo con las mayores consideraciones, regresó á las fronteras del Estado del Salvador.

Este Gobierno dirijió al de Costarica un comisionado con instrucciones para arreglar amigablemente la cuestion de limites, que fué bruscamente rechazado por aquel gobernante y á continuacion el Presidente Mora declaró la guerraá Nicaragia muy confiado en las fanfarronadas de Carrera y creyendo á este ya sobre nuestras fronteras, invadió esta República á la cabeza de un Ejército de tres mil hombres, y se introdujo has-ta la ciudad de Rívas: ocupó à los puertos de San Juan del Sur y la Virgen. En todes estos puntos, para no olvidar la costumbre servil y ser fiel imitador de su digno cólega el Salvage Carrera, cumplió exactamente sus instrucciones: incendió cuanto pudo, saqueó y asesinó á inocentes vecinos americanos, sin respetar al bello secso. El Jeneral en Jefe del ejército hizo entónces un rápido momiviento á la cabeza de 500 valien tes: sorprendió al enemigo en el mismo Rívas y castigó bien sus atrocidadejándolo cubierto de oprobio y poniéndole fuera de combate una ter cera parte de su fuerza. En seguida la mano de Dios completé la destruccion del Ejército enemigo con la peste y Mora se puso en fuga precipitada, a bandonó los restos de su ejército que se hallaban en el estado mas lamentable, los cuales lo siguieron en dispery maldiciendo a quien los habia sion conducido á la guerra mas injusta contra esta República. El hospital del e jército de Costarica fué abandonado á la generosidad del Jeneral Walker, quien dispuso lo conveniente à fin de atender curar á los enfermos. Mora llegó á y curar á los enfermos. Mora llegó á San José conduciendo el cólera, á es-perimentar las consecuencias de su torprocedimiento: la indignacion públi ca se pronunció contra él, y ha tenido que redoblar sus esfuerzos para mantenerse en el poder, desterrando á mn-chos y estableciendo el terror, al mismo tiempo que cree alucinar á aquellos pueblos con arengas y manifiestos lle-nos de hipocrecía y perfidia. El Gobierno Provisorio de esta República se trasladó á la ciudad de Leon á fines de Marzo dejando á su Ministro de Hacienda Ldo. don Fermin Ferrer, comisionado en los departamentos Ote. y Mdia. para cumplir sus instrucciones, y el desempeño de toda su administracion al Jeneral en Jefe. Mandó un Comisionado al Gobierno del Salvador que no fué admitido en su carácter o ficial, tolerándole que permaneciese como particular en aquel Estado. El Gebierno de Honduras habia reconocido al esta República y por entónces guardaba silencio, mientras los gabinetes de Guatemala y Costarica, seguian con sus destemplados gritos pretendiendo alar-mar á Centro-América y echar las masas sobre Nicaragua, á pretesto de tener en su servicio á un Jeneral americano cuya presencia les quita sueño. Los pueblos que conocen bien que sus verdaderos enemigos son los que se han apoderado del los Estados á fuerza de maldades y de sangre, los mismos que hace tanto tiempo oprimen al pais y lo aniquilan para enriquecerse, los mismos que han convertido á Centro-América en un campo desolado donde solo se ven huérfanos que lloran á sus padres y ancianos sin el apoyo de sus hijos, los mismos que se complacen en su obra de destruc cion y retroceso, presentando al mundo nuestra patria como un objeto de compasion, cuando debia aparecer mas floreciente: los pueblos repetimos, que an cian por la paz y por ver realizados los inmensos beneficios de la independencia manecido impacibles y quietos al lla mamiento de sus opresores, á pesar de los esfuerzos del servilismo para mandarlos al sacrificio y prolongar mas mas su sistema de esterminio.

Esta República comenzaba ya á caminar á su reorganizacion. No tenía enemigos en su seno y las mejores esperanzas producidas por la paz interior y el respecto impuesto al esterior por nuestro bravo Ejército, daban la mayor confianza en un porvenir alhagueño, oyendose con desprecio los sarcasmos que los serviles de Guatemala, el gabinete del Salvador y el de Costarica, dirijian contra la Administracion de Nicaragua, contra el Jeneral Walker y contra los americanos que acababan de salvar á estos pueblos de la anarquía y de batir bizarramente á un ejército invasor.

Por fin y despues de tanto ruido de los serviles, pudo Carrera mandar hasta Nacacme una fuerza de 600 hombres otra igual poco mas ó menos, logró Dueñas mover del Salvador mas tarde. Este fué el parto de los montes. Pero estaban ya puestas en juego las maquinaciones del servilismo y se redoblaron en privado segun parece, los esfuerzos los ofrecimientos de proteccion al ministerio del Sr. Rívas con tal de que se declarase contra el Jeneral Walker. Nadie imaginaba ni podia pensar en que se verificase una traicion tan deprava da y sin ejemplo, llena de estupidéz al mismo tiempo; por los mismos que habian sido tan favorecidos y de quienes debia esperarse eterna gratitud a sus salvadores: parecia imposible que una maldad tan vil y torpe fuese acojida por hombres que como funcionarios y como simples ciudadanos por su propia dignidad y honor debia repugnarles, mayormente si se detenian un momento á pensar en las fatales consecuencias de un procedimiento tan negro y brutal que tanto afecta á los pueblos. Apoyarse en enemigos declarados para traicionar sus amigos, es un hecho incalificable.

Nos será preciso hacer algunos detalles al referir los sucesos que se han verificado últimamente y nada nos importa que nuestros enemigos nos tachen de parcialidad: estamos en el caso de puntualizar hechos de que hay centenares de testigos, nuestra mira es grande y muy distante del pensamiento miserable de alhagar personas. MISCELANEA.

Por via de Panamá hay noticias de Sidney en Australia hasta 1.º de marzo último. Tambien aquella provincia eelipsada ahora por su vecina, de se hizo el primer descubrimiento de oro, da indicios de aumentar sus rendimientos. Durante los meses de enero y febrero las escoltas del gobierno trageron bajo registro de las minas ò lavaderos 15,000 onzas del presioso metal contra solo 10,000 onzas en igual período de 1855. Esta subida de nn 50 contribuye á robustecer la creencia de que podemos contar sobre inago. tables tesoros.

-El magnífico cuartel de Daoud Bajá en Constantinopla, convertido en hospital para los franceces, ha sido totalmen-te destruido por el fuego, escapando á duras penas de las llamas los dos mil enfermos y heridos que habia dentro. Los ingleses parecen haber sido mas afortunados, ó mas cautos, pues mientras á los franceses se les han quemado en la capital turca dos hospitales ellos ninincendio han sufrido. gun

-En Manchester (Inglaterra) hubo á fines de mayo un mee ing de los enemigos del tabaco en que se adoptaron resoluciones declarando pue las propiedades de nuestra preciosa plantason altamente perjudiciales al sistema humano.

CIENFUEGOS—En el fomento leemos. Entierro.-Pocos se han verificado en esta villa tan concurridos como el que tuvo lugar el dia 2 del corriente de D. Pedro Joaquin Acebal (Q. E. P. D.) Un numeroso gentío acompañado al cadáver hasta el mismo cementrio y de este modo tributaron al desgraciado padre que en lo mas florido de su edad abamdonápor a mismo Carrera, por mora, por la mismo Carrera, por mismo Carrera VAPOR SAN CARLOS.

El miercoles veinte y cuatro del corriente, por la tarde, entró en este puer-to el vapor "San Cárlos," conduciendo doscientos y pico de individuos de tropa procedentes de Nueva York, y alguotras personas. Trajo tambien va rios pertrechos de guerra, entre ellos cuatro morteros.

Cartas recibidas de personas fidedig-nas, nos anuncian que hay ya contrata-las—mil familias—colonizado as, de cudasyo número se embarcarán trescientas iumediatamente para esta, y mos que deben haberlo verificado á esta fecha. Cada individuo encarhado de una familia viene provisto, segun las condiciones del contrato, de un Arado, y de todos los útiles necesarios para la agri-cultura y mejor cultivo de la tierra. Damos esta noticia con un placer indefinible, por cuanto que este mento verdadero de prosperidad y ri-queza pública, y única medida salvadora de las naciones decaidas. Celebramos de nuevo la eficacia de nuestro gobierno, que sabe tan bien aprovechar el y llevar á cabo cuanto conduce á la felicidad del pais, por mas obstáculos que haya que vencer. En este mis-mo número sale un artículo sobre inmigracion, que ya estaba en caja cuando recibimos estas noticias; que de no ser así, lo hubieramos alargado mas.

Deben tambien haberse embarcado en Nueva York, el dia veinte y cuatro para ingresar en el ejército de esta República, quinientos hombres de tropa, que muy en breve estarán entre nosotros.

En el próximo número darémos noticias detalladas de todo, y una revista de los nuevos que nos traen los papeles.

Dícese que pronto tendrá lugar en Paris una reunion de los rabinos francses y argelinos para tomar en consideracion la conveniencia de trasladar al domingo la obseruancia del dia del Señor, que como es sabido practican los israelitas el sábado.

-El ejército Turco bajo el nuevo pié de paz constará de 100,000 hombres, de los cuales 25, 00 serán cristianos.

(CONTINUA.) POSOLTEGA.

Está á dos leguas escasas del antecedente: tiene por su títular á San Juan Bautista, tiene asiento en un llano alegre pero montuoso. Una Iglesia con su Capilla mayor de boveda, aunque desgraciada en el arco toral por el mencionado terromoto: el cuerpo de tres naves; la principal sobre horcones, y las dos paredes de cal y piedra, el techo de tablas y teja. Su coro alto, y encima de él tres companitas: ocho altares, los siete con sus retablos y frontales algo deslucidos; pero con moderada decencia, especialmente el mayor, donde se halla un baldoquin nuevo de plata con sus espejitos que lo agracian: la sacristía se está fabricando, por que un temblor de tierra la derribó el año pasado: la habitacion del doctrinero es de adoves y teja, con una sala: cuatro a-posentos, y sus corredores: acompañale un presbitero de la misma Religion. Las demas casas, así de los ladínos, como de indios son de paja, y componen el número de 102 metidas en el monte: numero de 102 metidas en el monte: las familias de 154, y las personas de todas edadbs el de 651: hay cuatro parcialidades que se intitulan: Posoltega, Guesana, Abangasquilla y Moyugalpa: están sujetas ä un solo alcalde, alguacíl mayor, dos rejidores y fiscal. Pagan de tributo 319 pesos un real. Asegúrase que en lo antiguo estos dos pue rase, que en lo antiguo estos dos pue-blos, los de Quesalguaque, y Telica eran bastantemente numerosos: compruéban-lo las Iglesias de los dos últimos, y del primero, que pueden servir en cual quiera poblacion de nombre: la que tie-ne el segundo se fabricó ahora dos anos; pero á espaldas de ella se hallan unas paredes de la antigua, que se arruinó con un terromoto, y segun los ves-tijios que han quedado, era igual á las otras tres.

POSOLTEGUILLA.

Este Pueblo, Poslteguilla, y el de Chichigalpa son administrados por un Religioso Mercenario. Dicta de Posoltega como medio cuarto de legua. El títular es la Concepcion: su Iglesia de teja sobre horcones, y sus paredes de embar-rados dislocados y para caerse: el altar mayor que es el único, tiene algun ornato; pero lo demas está muy inde-cente: dos campanillas en cuatro palos, y un cementerio de estacas, como todos los posteriores: 62 casas en un sitio llano, pero muy sucio de monte y 92 familias de indios, y personas 426 de todas edades, con su alcalde, alguacíl mayor, dos rejidores y fiscal. Pagan de tributo 462 pesos 2 reales.

QUESALGUAQUE.

A las tres leguas del anterior halla Quesalguaque, cuyo títular es San Pedro: tiene su asiento en un llano alegre, pero montuoso. El clima humedo y muy calido, y el agua azufrada. Veinte y seis casas, 37 familias y 175 personas ladínas é indios, un alcalde, personas raumas e muios, un alcalde, alguacíl mayor y dos rejidores, y el tributo anual que pagan se reduce á 68 pesos y cinco reales. Su Iglesia muy capaz, de tres naves: la principal sobre capaz, de tres naves: la principal sobre horcones, y las colaterales sostenidas de paredes de cal y piedra. La Capilla mayor es hermosa y de bóveda. La sacristía reducida y ambas se hallan rajadas con un temblor de tierra que acaeció la noche del 7 de Marzo de este año, sinco altares: en el mayor esti coloca cinco altares: en el mayor está colocada la Majestad Sacramentada: todos carecen de adorno, y la Iglesia necesita enteramente de reparo. La administracion de esta feligresía y la de Telica corre á cargo de un Cura clerigo, cuya renta total llegará á 500 pesos: se extiende el curato á 5 leguas de longitud. sobre cuatro de latitud, y en ellas hay dos hatos, otras tantas chácaras y algunas labranzas.

TELICA.

A una legua de distancia de Quesal-A una legua de distancia de Quesalguaque, se halla Telica. Antiguamente era pueble de indios: hoy se compone de unos pocos, que han quedado y de ladínos: atribuyese la extincion de los naturales á lo mal sano del agua que beben, por ser azufrada. Los ladínos están sujetos á los alcaldes de la Ciudad de Leon, que se halla á dos leguas: los indidos se gobiernan por un alcalde y por un rejidor, y pagan 30 pesos 7 y medio reales de tributo. El terreno que ocupa es algo montuoso, llano, y alegre: ocupa es aigo montuoso, ilano, y alegre: el clima huntedo y muy cálido. Las casas son de paja, esparcidas entre árboles frutales, sin concierto alguno. y llegan á 66 las familias á 81 y las personas á 306. La Iglesia, cuyo títular es Santiago. consta de un cañon capaz, sagristía y portade con des compans por cristía y portada con dos campanas pequeñas, cubierto todo de teja: y las paredes son de adoves, con un cemente-rio de palos: lo interior de la capilla mayor se halla adornado de una colgadura pintada; que la agracia. Hay cuatro altares: en el principal está el sagrario y una imagen de Cristo Crusificado, que se intitula "El Señor de Ios milagros" por los muchos que usa con los moradores del pueblo y comarca: tiene su retablo y frontal de madera, dorado, y á los lados dos arañas de plata para las luces: los tres restantes son pobres.

SAUCE.

Distante 17 leguas de Telica se halla el Sauce, que es un Pueblo que tiene por titular al Señor de Esquipulas, y su situacion está en un valle de monte bajo, alegre fresco y saludable: componese de indios y ladinos: estos care-cen de Juez: aquellos tienen un alcal-de y rejidor y pagan su tributo en los puoblos de donde son orijinarios. Los bohicos se reducen á 31 las familias á 73 y las personas á 377 La Iglesia es una casa grande con su sacerdote y altar, sin las indecencias que en otras he notado. Su Cementerio de palos, y en cuatro altos cubiertos de la misma paja. dos campanas medianas. Ultimamente el territorio de la administracion de este Pueblo y de la villa se termina, pasadas seis leguas, que juntas con las que tiene hace 24 de Ionjitud: su renta llegará á 350 pesos, y los hatos de ga-nado mayor á 55, con algunas labranzas y chácaras.

(Se Continuará.)

No basta solamente la fertilidad de los terrenos, ni la riqueza natural de que estén dotados, para hacer la de una nacion, ni proporcionarle al hombre las comodidades que desea, y no solo de-sea, sino que necesita á virtud de su estructura y carácteres particulares con que le formó la providencia, absolutamente distinto de los demas seres.-Necesario es que una mano civilizadora guíe y dirija á los pueblos, inculcándoles amor al trabajo, y enceñândoles las vias que conducen á lo que llamamos riqueza pública.—Opinan algunos economistas, que no es el pueblo mas rico aquel en que la madre tierra brinda á sus habitantes mayores elementos de subsistencia, si por su indolencia, incuria y apatía no se aprovechan ni utilizan aquellos medios: nada importa que haya abundantes minas de metales presiosos, si estas no se esplotan; ni que sem rado un grano de trigo dé veinte, si no se le siembra.—La industria unicamente proporciona al hombre con alguna profusion los artículos que le son precisos, y otros que sin ser indispensables al sostenimiento de la vida, son el barometro que marca el grado de adelanto de una sociedad, distinguiéndola de otra embrutecida.—Menester es pues, que el hombre impen-da su improbo trabajo y desarroye co nocimientos y actividad ejercitándose en los principales ramos de industria, á saber: agricola, fabril y comercial, esencialmente necesarios, que sin la concurrencia de cualquiera de ellas, no puede un estado llegar al grado de esplendor y riqueza â que todos aspiran. Podrá sostenerse sin la industria fabrical ni la comercial; pero que resulta de ello? Que se constituye forzosamente en perpetuo tributario de estraños traficantes que vienen á recojer los productos de ese estado, y dejan en cam-bio sus manufacturas y artículos, dantilidad de sus terrenos, por su fecunda vegetacion, por la inmensa variedad de maderas esquisitas; y finalmente por la abundante produccion de granos de todas clases, viandas de todas especies, y frutas de todos los climas? ¡Esto es profundamente sensible!

Localizando la materia, observaremos con dolor, que en este pais privilegia-do, donde llena de encanto se detuvo mano de la Providencia, yase aun vírgen la naturaleza, y todo es silves-tre, sin cultivo ni cuidado y sin ningun género de industria!—Que pensabais hacer de esos inmensos bosques de caobas, cedros y otras muchas clases de maderas valiosas, mientras que cien familias laboraban en la miseria? Qué pensabais hacer de esos pingues terrenos, que acaso nohan sido jamas vicitados. sino por algun pobre indigena, donde se dan silvestres toda clase de frutas esquisitas de todos los climas, y toda especie de viandas y granos? Bien lo vemos: habeis sido arrastrados por el torbellino de las discordias intestinas, la omnipotencia revolucionaria os ha hecho descuidar, no solo la agricultura, sino hasta la educacion de vuestros hi jos. ¡¡!!Este es el mayor mal que puede affiiir á un pueblo, y Nicaragua lo ha esperimentado en todo su rigor durante una larga y no interrumpida série de años!

Al fin, dichosamente, por un instinto providencial llamasteis vosotros mismos al Jeneral Walker en vuestro socorro, el que sin oir otra voz que la de su conciencia, y animacidad, corrió á vuestro auxilio, y os dió la paz que desea-bais, triunfando heroicamente, bien lo bais, triunfando heroicamente, habeis visto, de aquella turba de anarquistas y revolucionarios por costumbre.

Vosotros mismos le colocaistes en la primera magistratura del Estado, y vuestras esperanzas no serán defraudadas. Díganlo sino, la infinidad de decretos espedidos hasta la fecha, todos de conocida utilidad y bienhechora influencia, entre los cuales fugura el relativo á la inmigracion extranjera, que nos ha sujerido este artículo, y que no nos can-sarémos de repetir, es la fuente verdadera de la riqueza de los pueblos. Removidos los motivos que habia de discordia, y bajo la ejída de leyes pro-tectoras, con todos las garantias necesarias vendrán en lo adelante muchas familias colonizadoras, que iniportarán con sus personas, su trabajo, sus artes y su industria, y harán florecer la agricultura que es la mejor esperanza de Nicaragua, y florecerán tambien to-dos los demas ramos de riqueza que son infinitos. Del profundo decaimen to y postracion en que la dejaron las que la dejaron las revoluciones, la colonizacion extranjera es el único remedio que puede darle animacion y vada, y por eso celebra-mos en el presente artículo el decreto que trata de los inmigrantes; añadiendo, que cnantas garantías y ventajas se ofrezcan á los colonizadores, por muchas que fuesen, nunca serian eccesivas, puesto que la colonizacion es la que nos ha de importar la riqueza y la felicidad.

NOTICIAS LOCALES. Accidente desgrasiado.

Un accidente casual acaba de arreba tar de nuestro seno al por muchos tí tulos estimable jóven Cubano don Isidro Peilon, en el florido abril de su vida y en el apogéo de su juventud y lozanía. Dotado de muchas virtudes que forman el verdadero mérito del hombre, unia á estas cualidades una buena educacion y un natural amable que le cap-taban el aprecio de los que le trataban. Tenía una intelijencia clara y despejada; poseia los idiomas Inglés, Francés, Ita leano y Castellano, que era el suyo, a-demas de otros conocimientos de gusto que constituyen un jóven de buena so-

Era jefe de Seccion del Ministerio de relaciones, destino que desempeñaba satisfactoriamente, y muy á gusto del Sr. don Fermin Ferrer Ministro del Ramo, en cuya casa vivia, y quien le estimaba mucho.

Yendo para Chontales en la expedicion voluntaria que salió en dias pasa-dos de esta ciudad, se le cayó el som-en la plaza frente á la casa de Gobierno.

brero como á distancia de cuatro leguas: se apeó á cojerlo y al montar otra vez se preparó la llave del fusil con las ramas de un árbol, se disparó, le entró la bala por el pecho y le dejó muerto.—Lamentamos la muerte pramatura de nuestro amigo, tanto mas, cuanto que la virtud es rara en los jóvenes de su cdad. ¡Seale la tierra lijera!

PASEOS.

Tenemos el gusto de anunciar á las bellas Señoritas de esta ciudad que dentro de pocos dias estarán bien abiertos y en forma de calles los dos caminos principales que conducen á la playa, siendo este un paseo bespertino alegre y delicioso. Allí pueden ir las niñas acompañadas de sus mamas á recibir la impresion agradable de la fresca brisa, así como á gozar del bello panorama que ofrese el hermoso lago.

Plaza del mercado: (provincialismo tian. gue.) Algo desprovisto de viandas y de frutas se halla el mercapo en estos dias: no vemos en él las sabrosas piñas, ni de delicano nispero, ni el rico sapote. Deploramos tal indolencia. Solo las ciruelas abundan, y son dulces, en verdad; pero ninguna Señorita le ha remitido al autor de estas locales ni un platico siquiera. Bien puede él comprarlas con su dinero, dirán ellas; mas él replica: mejores son las regaladas — Garciloso decia: fresca y sabrosa, mas que la fruta del cercado ajeno.

Un hijo que se halla ausente de su querida madre por el espacio de siete años tiene hoy el indecible placer de felicitarla en el aniversario de su na cimiento.

Adorada madre mia Para quien la suerte dura Solo deparó amargura Un hijo triste en tu dia; Llena el alma de afliccion.

Del fondo del corazon Alza sus ruegos al cielo, Y le pide con anhelo Tenga de si compacion. Oh! ya el rigor de la suerte.

Contigo tan inhumana Cambie su fiereza insana Y pueda feliz yo verte Mas sino venga la muerte Y aniquile mi existencia.

Pero no que en mi vehemencia Pido al cielo mas dolor Por que vivir es mejor Si gozo de tu presencia.
